From the Baron & Baroness

To the Populace of al-Barran, Greetings! Her Excellency Monika and I do send a mighty Huzzah to all the help we had at the Estrella war. The list is amazingly long, if we forget to mention anyone, we apologize. Thanks to Alexander for all his hard work as land coordinator. He did a great job. Thanks to Lady Beatrice for doing a fantastic job of volunteer coordinator. Thank you to Lady Ashira for her fabulous cream of chicken and green chili stew and to Lady Ursula for her wonderful green chili stew. Both were amazing! We want to give a hearty Thank You to Haven Avare, the Pirate Ship Barking Spider and House Dark Sun for breakfast. The food was plentiful and delicious. Another Thank you goes to Lady Ia and Lady Solveig for making the many Guidos and Cordon Scorpions that were given out. Thank you also to the fighters, artisans and support crews for coming to war and working so hard for the Barony and the Kingdom.

Blaiddwyn will be hosting Winter Wolf later this month. The event is always a lot of fun. We hope to see many of you there. There are also many other events coming in the near future both in al-Barran and in the surrounding areas. The Cuban Ballista Crisis and Grand Outlandish are just around the corner. See the Calendar for details.

This year there is going to be an additional task to complete in order to become a Champion of al-Barran. Not only will the prowess of each participant be proven, but also each person's knowledge of al-Barranian history. This addition is to be called the Champion Challenge. The information does not need to be memorized, but any person wishing to become a Champion of al-Barran will be responsible for having access to this information. All information, including questions and answers for the Champion Challenge will be posted in the Baronial Shaft only. If you have an item of interest that you think might be appropriate or a fun addition to the Champion Challenge, please contact either of us. Please stay tuned to your local Shaft and tell a friend about getting this great publication.

Baron

Monika
Baroness

From the Chronicler

Greetings al-Barran. I am sure that all of you are recovering from war. Whether you fought or served, that wonderous event can take a toll on you.

While you were out celebrating, I was here still working on how to make the Shaft the must have every month. I know there has been talk, both good and bad, about the changes to this publication. I would hope that those that are on the bad side realize that the changes have brought about discussion in the Barony for a publication that was losing momentum with the community. Subscriptions have gone up and people are looking forward to seeing what is in the next issue.

So I call upon you to offer something to this publication instead of speaking ill of it. If you have any ideas, jokes, anything, please share them with me. Who knows, they could be our new feature.

In Service,

Lady Teresa MacDuffie

From the Senechal

Greetings unto the grand and noble populace of al-Barran. I hope the words find you in good spirit and health.

I send you these words to announce the first of a series of prize tournaments I intend to sponsor this season. There will be a tourney each month starting in March and running through August. The winner of each tourney will be invited to face one another at "Champions" to engage in a best of five weapons tourney to determine the seasons overall winner. Provided there is more than one winner!

The first tourney will take place on March 23rd at Battan Park at approx. 11:00 a.m. It will be a 9' spear tourney, best two out of three and double elimination.

To enter there will be a $1.00 entry fee and you must have a current combat authorization card. The entry fees will be donated to the baronial coffers.

Though not required (yet), it is highly encouraged that you wear a lady's favor and display your heraldry upon the field! So I ask the might warriors of al-Barran to clean off the blood from war, make your repairs and claim the list field as yours!

YIS,

Sir Seth Williamson of Exeter

From the Mistress of the List

Unto all al-Barranians a good day Let us all welcome a new season of arts, training, fighting, and making new friendships. I would like to personally encourage all members of the populace, old and new alike, to join us at the monthly citizen's meetings. The meetings are on the third Tuesday of each month at 6:30pm. It's a great way to meet your local officers and know what is going on in your Barony. Directions to the meeting are on-line at al-barran.org and in this publication. I will be training deputies and anyone else who is interested in learning the ways of the lists.

Grand Outlandish Tournaments are coming soon and I will need lots of help. There will be many opportunities to train at our monthly prize tournaments at Bataan Park on the third Sunday of each month. I will also be at fighter practice most Sundays to meet with you. If Sundays are not good for you, please give me a call, we can meet another day. My contact information is included below. I would like to offer my words of encouragement and support to all the fighters preparing to fight in Crown Tournament. May you all fight with honor in your heart.

Have a great month, and don't forget to kiss someone Irish for luck!

Yours in Service,

Lady Bevin

Cuban Balista Crisis Part Deux

Hail mighty populace of al-Barran, Baron Gregor and Baroness Monica call all fighters to arms for invaders have occupied our lands in Cuba. The barony of Fontaine has challenged us to reclaim our lands for they state Cuba rightfully theirs. There is also a new threat brewing with the People's Resistance lead by the Imperialist General Fedallah Castro for he states that Cuba should be a free state for the people's. Both leaders have staked their claim for Cuban land rights and have assembled their armies to challenge our great warriors to heavy weapons, light weapons and archery. Get your armor repaired, your swords taped and tipped, those bows strung and your banners made so we may crush our enemies and keep Cuba safe from further threats.

Come one and all for fun filled day of fighting on Sunday, April 27th. Site fee cost is free so al-Barran lets show who Cuba really belongs to. The site opens at 9am and closes at 5pm and there will be a food and drink vendor on site. This is a discreetly wet site.

From the North: Take Highway 550 and travel 1 mile north of Cuba Turn right unto Shoyer Estates Road between mile markers 66 and 67. Follow Shoyer Estates Rd. 1/4 a mile to site on the left hand side of the road. From the South: Take Highway 550 to Shoyer Estates Rd between mile markers 66 and 67 and turn left and continue 1/4 mile to site which will be on the left hand side of the road. Look for SCA signs.

Long Live al-Barran!!
